Re: ID #C00143230

Dear Ms. Averett:

It was good to speak with you on September 7. As suggested, I am writing to describe our efforts on reports in the face of considerable obstacles.

As I believe you know, there has been an entire change in Chairs and staff of the New York State Democratic Committee (the "Committee") from that in 1994 and into early 1995. The Treasurer also resigned in November 1994, and I am Acting Treasurer. We hired an Executive Director two weeks ago. I am anxious to supply appropriate responses to the few remaining questions raised by you concerning certain reports of the Committee to the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") covering the later part of 1994.

For most of 1995, the Committee has shared a headquarters at a location different from that used in 1994, with significant space restrictions. However, this week we are moving to a larger location of our own, at Suite 300, 30 East 29th Street, New York, New York 10006. Materials placed in storage in 1994 and early 1995 will be retrieved and reviewed and, as appropriate, returned to headquarters. Staff and consultant effort will be directed toward responses to the questions remaining as to the subject 1994 Committee reports to the FEC.

Thank you for your ongoing interest and cooperation. Please contact me with any questions, comments, or information.

Sincerely,

William S. Greenawalt
Acting Treasurer
New York State Democratic Committee
