Dear Ms. Manzano:

We recently received notice that NATCA PAC made an excessive contribution of $500 to Senator Young's 1996 primary campaign. Please be advised, as per the attached letter, that we have asked his campaign to redesignate that contribution to the general election. This will be reported on the March Monthly Report (02/01/96-02/29/96).

Additionally, a review of our records shows that we also made an excessive contribution of $500 to Senator Inhofe's primary campaign. We have also asked his campaign committee to redesignate that contribution to the general election. This too will be reported on the March Monthly Report.

I apologize for the error. If you have any questions, or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Elisa A. Oman

Dear Sir or Madam:

A review of the Federal Election contribution records of the National Air Traffic Controllers Association Political Action Committee (NATCA PAC) and the National Marine Engineers Beneficial Association (NMEBA), with whom we are affiliated, discloses that your campaign committee has received contributions in excess of the $5,000 limit for the 1996 primary election campaign.

In order to comply with federal election law, NATCA PAC would like to redesignate $1,000 of the excess contributions to Senator Young's general election campaign. The re-designation should be credited to NATCA PAC.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
