All other members on this Mid-Year 2011 report whose aggregate contributions have totaled $200 or more in a calendar year, who have not notified CWALACPAC of their occupation and employer, have been sent a letter requesting said information with the following language:

"I would like to ask you to take a moment to provide us with some important information that we are missing in our records for you regarding your 2010 contributions. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and the name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year. Please help us comply with this requirement by responding to this letter, providing your occupation and employer in the section below.'
