Dear Ms. Sinram,

In response to your letter dated April 7, 2006, regarding:

expenditures made for 'Public Relations - Event Hall' on Schedule B: none of these expenditures were made on behalf of specifically identified federal candidates (this was a community outreach event to increase contributions to the pac, i.e., to increase the pac's membership);

expenditure(s) for 'Direct Mail' on Schedule B: the disbursement identified on line 29 to Johnson's Printing Services in the amount of $5,214.43 on 11/1/2005 was not made on behalf of a specifically identified federal candidate (this disbursement was for the costs associated with a general mailing to increase contributions to the pac, and for the costs associated with the printing of letterhead and envelopes); the disbursement identified on line 21(b)(u) to Johnson's Printing Services in the amount of $2,952.17 on 12/12/2005 was made on behalf of a specifically identified federal candidate (i.e., Howard Kaloogian) (note: the Year End Report (7/1/05 - 12/31/05) has been amended to reflect this in-kind contribution); administrative expenses: the limited payments for administrative expenses have been adequately disclosed on the Year End Report (7/1/05 - 12/31/05); the pac contracts with consultants / independent contractors and does not have any salaried employees (the executive director implements the policies of the pac's board of directors and coordinates the activities of volunteers to execute the pac's initiatives, e.g. fundraising, voter registration, grassroots advocacy); the pac does not maintain a physical office and does has no rent payments.

If I can provide any additional information, please let me know.

Sincerely,
