Mr. Dominck Ciaraldi

Reference: Year End Report (7/1/00 12/31/99)

Dear Mr. Ciaraldi:

Enclosed please find the amended Year End Report (7/1/99 – 12/31/99). In this letter we hope to answer all of the questions in your letter dated April 12, 2000.

On page one of your letter in the first two paragraphs you note that the calculations of several lines of the Summary Page and the Detailed Summary Page are incorrect. We have added the numbers several times and the calculations appear to be correct. Please advise if there is something we are not seeing regarding this issue.

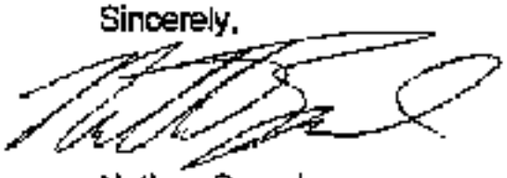
Secondly, In the third paragraph of the first page, you note our miscalculation of the allocation ratio on Schedule H1. We have corrected this to reflect only 1 point on line 9 and therefore changing our ratio to 37%. However, in actually allocating the splits on schedules H3 & H4, we used a ratio within the revised allocation margin. Therefore, although the H1 was not completely accurate our margin still allowed us to transfer funds within our limit.

In the first paragraph of the third page you mention a debt to Miller LaSota & Peters. This debt was owed for a completely non federal activity and was paid for during the reporting period with non federal dollars. Previous inclusion of this debt on a Schedule D was an error. We will be submitting amendments to this fact shortly.

Continuing on the rest of page three, you note an excessive contribution for Mr. Gene Brewer. This was an error on our part. Mr. Brewer's $5000.00 was cash sent to us after a liquidation of stock from a joint stock account owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brewer. The $5000.00 should have been allocated to both Mr. and Mrs. Brewer in order that both of them did not exceed the allowable limit. A correction to Schedule A has been made in order to reflect this.

Lastly, on page four and five you advise that the format used in this report is not acceptable. Our format is generated by Aristotle software. It is our understanding that Aristotle software is a recognized by the FEC as an acceptable format. Please advise if this is not so.

Sincerely,



Nathan Sproul
Executive Director
