This letter is in response to your notification dated February 17, 1999, regarding excessive contributions made by the Michigan Credit Union League Legislative Action Fund (MCULLAF). Please be advised that we have acted to redesignate the contributions as primary contributions for the 1999-2000 election cycle for Congressman Dingell and Levin. Attached are letters that were sent to each campaign committee to which excessive contributions were made.

Mr. Guy Martin
John D. Dingell for Congress Committee
13912 Michigan Avenue
Dearborn, MI 48126

Dear Mr. Martin:

The Michigan Credit Union League Legislative Action Fund (MCULLAF) has been notified by the Federal Election Commission that it made an excessive contribution to Congressman Dingell's campaign committee for the 1998 general election. MCULLAF is affiliated with the Credit Union Legislative Action Council of CUNA (CULAC) and as such the contributions of these PACs are aggregated for FEC campaign contribution limits. FEC reports indicate that MCULLAF and CULAC contributed a combined $6,000.00 for the general election, $1,000.00 over the maximum allowed by law.

This letter is to inform you that MCULLAF will remedy this situation by redesignating the excessive contribution of $1,000.00 to the Congressman's 2000 re-election efforts. The $1,000.00 will be reported as a contribution for the 2000 primary as a memo entry on our next report to the FEC.

Please accept my apology in advance for our error. Should you have any questions regarding this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me at (800) 262-6285.

Sincerely,

Gary A. Moody
