

This is in response to the notices received from the FEC regarding the Quarterly filings of April, July and October 2008.

The Republican Member Senate Fund (the Fund) has made its best efforts to obtain all identification of individuals who contribute in excess of $200 as required by Commission Regulations including full name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer.

Our best efforts are as follows:

Our original solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information and includes a notice informing the contributor of the requirements of federal law fo the reporting of such information.

The Fund makes one follow-up effort to obtain any missing information from contributors(regardless of whether the contribution was solicited or not) is included in an acknowledgement letter of receipt of the contribution. This letter is sent within 30 days of receipt of the contribution. It includes a clear request for the information, does not request further contributions, informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information and includes a pre-addresssed return envelope.

All additional information received from contributors after the filing of a report is included in a subsequent amendment to the report
