

In response to your December 27 letter concerning the Post-General Election Report, all three disbursements for mailing, printing and postage paid for mailed communications to members of CWA Local 13000, the connected organization of the Committee. None of these communications was distributed to the general public. Accordingly, they were neither independent expenditures nor in-kind contributions and were properly treated on Line 21(b) disbursement.