This report is in response to a letter dated May 29, 2019 from the FEC's Reports Analysis Division. The letter requested additional information about the candidate and the Committee given the residual cash on hand, and sought a response by July 3, 2019.

In response to your questions, the named candidate has no plan to campaign for a federal office in the 2020 election cycle. Subsequent to the 2012 election cycle, the last cycle in which the candidate was active, the Committee was aware that there was a winding down process outlined by the FEC. However, the Committee was not aware that such a winding down process was required. The committee maintained the account in order to preserve its ability to make eligible disbursements, such as charitable contributions or appropriate contributions to other campaigns.

However, given the May 29 letter, the Committee anticipates that the FEC may require either the winding down of the committee and/or the appropriate expenditure of residual funds. As such, the Committee is considering appropriate eligible disbursements to make in the near future.

Please let me know if you have further questions or desire further information.
