

This form 99 submission is in response to the Commission's letter dated January 12, 2007. The payment for "Free Media Radio Interview Tour" was a public relations consulting fee paid to North American Network Inc to arrange radio interviews for the President of 21st Century Democrats to inform the public of the mission and programs of 21st Century Democrats. These interviews in no way promoted, supported, attacked, or opposed any candidates for federal office.