RE: Donald M. Payne Jr. For Congress

12 Day Pre-Primary Report (4/01/16 -5/18/16)

Dear Mr. Amehein:

We are in receipt of your letter dated June 30, 2016, concerning the above captioned Report, in which you stated:

DEFICIENCY 1.

Our Campaign received contributions from political organizations that were not registered with the Federal Election Commission.

To resolve this issue we have mailed letters (see example enclosed) to the thirteen (13) unregistered political organizations identified in your letter, requesting them to certify that the funds donated were permissible and complied with the FEC regulations. However ,to date we have not received any responses to our letters, we therefore plan to send second requests and make follow-up telephone calls to those organizations. Accordingly, we are hereby requesting an additional 45 days extension of time to submit the certifications.

DEFICIENCY 2.

Our Campaign failed to disclose the identification of some individuals who contributed in excess of $200.

Please be advised that we have reviewed the Pre-Primary Report and noted that twelve(12) individuals whom contributed (see list attached) fell within this category. To correct the omission, we have developed and mailed letters (see example attached) to those individuals to obtain the missing

To Whom It May Concern:

Donald M. Payne Jr. for Congress would like to thank you for your interest in making a contribution to Donald M. Payne Jr.'s 2016 campaign for the United States House of Representatives. The purpose of this letter is to inform potential contributors of federal campaign finance laws that apply to non-federal political committees.

A political committee that is not registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) can contribute to federal committees provided it is able to certify that it has sufficient federally permissible funds in its account at the time it is making a contribution(s) to a federal committee(s). Federally permissible sources refer to contributions from individuals and political committees registered with the FEC.

A non-federal political committee can give up to $1,000 in the aggregate to all federal committees over the course of a calendar year without having to register with the FEC.

A non-federal political committee that chooses to give in excess of $1000 to federal committees must register with the FEC by filing a Form 1 (Statement of Organization) within 10 days of making an expenditure (i.e., contribution) in connection with a federal election that causes it to exceed the $1000 threshold. In addition to registering, the committee must report its expenditure(s) to the FEC on a Form 3X (Report of Receipts and Disbursements). The committee must file Form 3Xs with the FEC on a quarterly basis until the committee terminates its federal activities, which can be requested with an initial filing.

Don Payne for Congress requires the following in order to accept a contribution from a non-federal political committee into its federal account:

- certification that the committee has sufficient federally permissible funds in its account(s);
- certification that the committee has registered/will register with the FEC if the committee's contribution to the Donald M. Payne Jr. for Congress exceeds $1,000;
- certification that the committee will file the requisite Form 3X disclosing the committee's contribution to Donald M. Payne, Jr. for Congress if the contribution exceeds $1,000.

Should you have additional questions regarding a committee's filing requirements, please contact the compliance department at the Donald M. Payne Jr. for Congress.

Please review the attached statement and, by your signature, verify the true statement(s).

Thank you for your support and assistance in this matter.

Yours truly,

Compliance Department , Neil Williams (973)449-8413.
