In response to your request for additional information. 21st century Democrats (The Committee) responds as follows: 1. Even though payments were made after the primary date, the value of the in-kind contributions was realized by the campaign on or before the date of the primary. The Committee has amended its report to add memo entries to show the dates that the campaign received the in-kind contribution(s). 2. Names in the News is a national list vending firm that facilitates the sale of The Committee's list to other organizations. Having checked with Names in the News, we have been assured that the payments to the Committee is the 'usual and normal' charge for similar lists. 3. All of these expenditures are involved with The Committee's own operations and none were made on behalf of any specifically identified candidate. 4. This expenditure was for printing invitations for the fundraising event 'Michigan 2004'. Please find this on the attached amendment. 5. The noted descriptions were all typographical errors and have been clarified on the attached amendment.
