

In reference to the Commission's letter dated March 31, 2010, the Arizona Republican Party has limited administrative expenses due to owning the building the Party office are located in. All administrative expense the Party does pay for have been reported accordingly.