Dear Mr. Bennett

In reply to your letter of May 14, 2008, again, the First District Republican Committee is totally voluntary. No one is paid one cent for any services of any description on behalf of the Committee. PERIOD

In regard to your second paragraph, I require clarification. Any payment we make to any member of the Committee is a reimbursement for monies that person has made on the Committee's behalf. It in no way imaginable constitutes some kind of income paid to that person. In addition, these expenses are not being paid for by any affiliated organization since there is no such arrangement. Are you suggesting this type of payment should be entered on Schedule B?

No professional person or business provides any type of service to our Committee that I am aware of. In case that's unclear, that's why I have not listed any such in-kind contributions.

Yours truly,

Janet A. Jackson
