

Thank you for your letter of February 27 regarding administrative expenses.

Administrative matters for the committee are largely performed by the committee's fundraising and accounting/compliance consultants and are included in their fees.

Also, a significant amount of management and fundraising activities for the committee is performed by volunteers.
