Dear Congressman Porter:

As you know, AMPAC was privileged to recently support your reelection effort in the way of a Benchmark Survey, completed by American Viewpoint and presented to you on February 16, 1996.

This research will be reported as an in-kind contribution from AMPAC to you on our amended February report to the Federal Election Commission. You must, therefore, report to the FEC that $4,500.00 was received from AMPAC in the form of an in-kind 1996 primary contribution on the above date. If there are questions about this, be sure to let me know.

Also, we have included two copies of a receipt for this material and would appreciate your signing both copies of the receipt and returning one copy to us.

Again, AMPAC was pleased to provide this contribution, and is hopeful of your reelection in November, 1996. I would like to again suggest that you be sure to express your appreciation to the physicians in your District who, by their support to AMPAC, make this contribution possible.

Sincerely,

Bill Thorne
Director, Division of Political and Legislative Grassroots and Assistant Treasurer

AMPAC is a separate segregated fund established by the AMA. Voluntary political contributions by individuals to AMPAC should be written on personal checks. Funds from corporations cannot be used for contributions and expenditures in federal elections. Corporate checks will be placed in a separate AMA account for political education and other non-election activities. Contributions are not exempt from suggested amount. Neither AMA nor its constituent state associations will favor or disadvantage anyone based upon the amount or failure to make PAC contributions. Voluntary contributions are not subject to limitations of FEC regulations. Section 106.1, 106.2 and 106.5 (federal regulations require this notice.)

Contributions to AMPAC are not deductible as charitable contributions or federal income tax deduction.

Dear Congressman McIntosh:

As you know, AMPAC was privileged to recently support your reelection effort in the way of a Benchmark Survey, completed by Public Opinion Strategies and presented to you on March 12, 1996.

This research will be reported as an in-kind contribution from AMPAC to you on our March, 1996 report (due April 20, 1996) to the Federal Election Commission. You must, therefore, report to the FEC that $4,700.00 was received from AMPAC in the form of an in-kind 1996 primary contribution on the above date. If there are questions about this, be sure to let me know.

Also, we have included two copies of a receipt for this material and would appreciate your signing both copies of the receipt and returning one copy to us.

Again, AMPAC was pleased to provide this contribution, and is hopeful of your reelection in November, 1996. I would like to again suggest that you be sure to express your appreciation to the physicians in your District who, by their support to AMPAC, make this contribution possible.

AMPAC is a separate segregated unit established by the AMA. Voluntary political contributions by individuals to AMPAC should be in cash or personal checks. Funds from corporations cannot be used for contributions and expenditures in furtherance of political purposes. Corporate checks will be given in a separate AMA account for political education and other non-election activities. Contributions are not subject to the suggested amount. Neither AMA nor its constituent state associations are liable for a good-faith amount based upon the amount of future in-state PAC contributions. (Contributor's political contributions are subject to limitations of FEC regulations Section 110.1, 110.2 and 110.5 of federal regulations under the statute.)

Contributions to AMPAC are not deductible as charitable contributions. No federal income tax purposes.
