

In response to your letter dated April 18, 2011, the Committee would like to clarify that the Schedule A receipts reflect two separate payroll deductions and the aggregate year to date totals are correct.