This amendment is in response to the Commission's letter June 15, 2007. The original payment to LUC Media on 7/21/2006 was reported on Schedule B for Line 30b. Therefore, no transfer to the Non-Federal Account is required as it was not originally part of an allocation transfer. The debts to Johnson Printing Co and NGP Software on Schedule D for Line 10 should have been reported as newly incurred during the period covered in the February Monthly and not as being outstanding from the Year-End 2006 report. This has been corrected on this amendment. The debt to Phoenix Commercial Printers is reported as outstanding at the beginning of the period. However, during the month, it was determined that the payment was not due. A negative debt was reported to bring the balance due to $0 for the end of the period. Payments for 'Payroll,' 'Health Insurance,' and 'Payroll Taxes' on Schedule H4 are for employees who did not spend more than 25% of their time during the month on activity in connection with a federal election.
