Attention Ryan Lanz, Campaign Finance Analyst:

This memo is in response to the recent letter the committee has received from you dated September 16, 2005 concerning the Mid-Year Report (1/1/05-6/30/05):

In reference to the expenditures for the various 'fundraising' expenses reported on Schedule B, these expenditures were for the purpose of doing general fundraising for the committee and were not made on behalf of any specifically identified federal candidate. The report has been amended to clarify the purpose for these expenditures.

The expenditures for 'printing' disclosed on Schedule B for the purpose of doing general mailouts and invitations for the committee and were not used for the purpose of making public communications nor conducting voter drive activity containing express advocacy. The report has been amended to clarify the purpose for these expenditures.
