Re: Amended 12-Day Pre-General Report filed by C70000716

Dear Mr. McQueen,

This response addresses the question presented in your letter of November 27, 2018; namely, why the information disclosed on the 12-Day Pre-General Communication Costs report amendment filed on November 3, 2018 was not disclosed on the original report. The information disclosed on the amendment was inadvertently overlooked when the original report was prepared.

Invoices related to federal candidate advocacy were incorrectly coded in the accounting system as non-federal candidate advocacy and as a result not included in the committee's 12-Day Pre-General Report.

We place great emphasis on compliance with federal election law, and we understand that fair elections depend on the availability of complete and accurate information to the electorate. Therefore, when this error was detected during our month-end accounting close process, an amendment was immediately filed to reflect the allocated cost of the federal candidate advocacy communications previously excluded. We would like to stress the fact that the information provided to the electorate was complete and accurate before the November 6 election.

We hope this explanation will satisfy the FEC's request for additional information. Please contact me if there are any further questions - either by mail at the address above, by email at rowens@nrahq.org, or by phone at (703) 267-1157.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this matter.
