Please note that the contribution from Washinton Conservation Voters was previously reported on the October Quarterly report. The IE report filed on October 8th referenced the September contribution in order to show the source of the funds covering the Independent Expenditure disseminated on the report but only one contribution was made. Due to a miscommunication in our organization, we missed filing the Q3 and YE supplemental reports. We have filed our IE reports timely. Unfortunately, COVID-19 created a huge challenge in communication with personnel working remote, semi-remote, and relocated work places. In addition, the mail delivery has been extemely delayed. We just recently received the communication from the FEC and have submitted the missing report.We hope you consider these exigent circumstances and that all of our IE reports have been filed timely.Thank you, Jay Petterson
