This memo is a brief outline of the best efforts program for National Right to Life committee (NRTL). Every week NRTL selected a file of donors (aggregates $200+) missing the required employer/occupation information for the given week. These donors were placed in a unique file and were mailed the best efforts letter asking for their occupation and employer information. NRTL mailed these letters weekly. All best efforts mailings were personalized letters with the donor's name, address and the FEC disclosure information. The letter also gave the donor the option of providing his or her missing information by phone, fax or e-mail. Any returned information was entered into the system by an employee of NRTL.
