RE: July Monthly Report (06/01/2018 ? 06/30/2018)
Response Due Date: 09/26/2018

Dear Mr. Rebollozo:

This letter is in response to the Commission's request for additional information related to contributions received by Congressional Progressive Caucus PAC during the 2018 July Monthly reporting period.

The Commission asked about the receipt of a contribution from the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education. Congressional Progressive Caucus PAC did receive a contribution from the federal account of this committee and disclosed the contribution accordingly on Schedule A, supporting Line 11c. The American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education amended its 2018 July Monthly Report to ensure the contribution was properly disclosed. If the Commission needs additional information regarding this contribution please contact the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education directly.

The Commission also asked about the receipt of several contributions from individuals with mailing addresses outside of the United States of America. The contributions in question were received through ActBlue, and the contributors did agree to the ActBlue contribution rules, which include ?1. I am a U.S. citizen or lawfully admitted permanent resident (i.e., green card holder).? However, because Congressional Progressive Caucus PAC was unable to independently verify the citizenship of the three contributors in question, their contributions were refunded electronically on the ActBlue website. The refund to Andreas Reissland was reported on Schedule B, supporting Line 28a on Congressional Progressive Caucus PAC's 2018 August Monthly Report. The refunds to the other two contributors in question will be disclosed on subsequent reports. Congressional Progressive Caucus PAC has also reached out to the contributors directly and requested photocopies of their passports.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Diane Evans
Treasurer
