Re: 24 Hour Notice of Disbursements/Obligations for Electioneering
 Communications (FEC Form 9), Covering Period 11/03/03 - 03/1/04

Dear Ms. Lane:

This letter is in response to your June 1, 2004 request for additional information concerning The Media Fund's ("TMF") above-referenced report.

1. Request for Date Verification

On December 31, 2003, TMF received a transfer of funds from the joint fundraising representative, Victory Campaign 2004. This receipt of joint fundraising proceeds was itemized on page 14 of TMF's FEC Form 9, Schedule A dated March 12, 2004.

2. Nature of TMF's participation with joint fundraising representative and sources of fund received from Victory Campaign 2004

TMF is a nonfederal participant with a joint fundraising representative, Victory Campaign 2004, that has both federal and nonfederal participants. Victory Campaign 2004 is registered with the Federal Election Commission.

1120 Connecticut Avenue, NW / Suite 1140 / Washington, DC 20036

Paid for by The Media Fund (202-974-8360) and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Contributions to The Media Fund are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

24038440729

Victory Campaign 2004 and TMF established segregated nonfederal bank accounts into which only funds donated by individuals are deposited pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 114.14.(d)(2). These funds are used by TMF to pay for electioneering communications. The allocable share of individual donations to TMF aggregating $1,000 or more deposited in Victory Campaign 2004's segregated nonfederal individual account are itemized as memo entries on FEC Form 9, Schedule A, by TMF.

If you need any additional information related to TMF's report, please notify me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Erik Smith
Treasurer

Federal Election Commission
