Re: Americans United in Support of Democracy

April 15th Quarterly Report
Expenditures for Administrative Expenses

Dear Sir or Madam:

Effective January 1, 2006, Americans United in Support of Democracy ("AUSD") underwent an administrative reorganization.

In the past, AUSD was a "virtual" organization that was administered by board members and other individuals serving as volunteers. Moving forward, AUSD will have an actual office location and will purchase certain administrative services and office supplies from its landlord. We have consulted with legal counsel on the structure of this new arrangement and are confident that the amounts and timing of the expenditures for these items as reflected on Schedule B of the recently filed April 15th quarterly report are in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations effecting non-connected committees.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or need any additional information.

Very Truly Yours,

David Semmel
Treasurer

not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee. Federal election law requires AUSD to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. Contributions to AUSD are not tax deductible.*
