Dear Ms. Brown,

I am the treasurer for GradPAC and we spoke a couple of weeks ago regarding GradPAC's failure to file the April Quarterly report. At that time, I mentioned to you that I had just assumed this position and had replaced Steve Troutner, whose Father had recently died of cancer. Anyway, I just wanted you to know that I am still completing the report, and fully intend to have it to you sometime this month.

I apologize for the delinquency. You may recall that GradPAC is an all-volunteer organization and I am one of those volunteers. I own and operate a business by day (and night, and weekends, too). And while it was my best intention to have the report to you by now, I am getting married this week and the required planning time for this event has taken priority over both my GradPAC and business responsibilities and has also been unexpectedly overwhelming. I do not offer these as excuses for being late; I offer them only as an explanation for why I have failed so far to meet our organization's requirements to you.

In closing, I want to thank you for your continued patience and understanding. I will be traveling until June 18th, but will be available after that time. Should you have any questions, please feel free to call me at home at: (703) 519-9207. Otherwise, you will certainly be hearing from me immediately upon completion of the April quarterly report.

Sincerely yours,

Kevin M. Keating
