In response to FEC letter dated 3/28/2016: All Club for Growth Action solicitations by mail, email, internet or printed materials contain the appropriate disclaimers informing the donor of the requirements of federal law for reporting contributor information. If CFG Action already has this information on file, it will also be included on any solicitations through mail or email, giving the donor an opportunity to update any information that is no longer valid. Further, a thank you/confirmation note is sent within 30 days for any donation received and if the donor's occupation/employment information is missing, it will be requested on this form. The thank you/confirmation note does not include a solicitation, but does include a pre-addressed response envelope. The thank you/confirmation note also informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for reporting contributor information. If responses to this request are recieved, CFG Action amends reports as responses arrive in a timely manner. CFG Action will review recently filed reports and update any donor information that has been received by amending reports. The independent expenditures listed in the RFAI were overlooked due to a clerical error.
