Reports

In response to your letter to Beth L. Rusert, our Treasurer, we spoke on the phone and on October 19, 2001, you indicated no response was needed by us as the requested information had been found in the reports originally filed. The letter was removed from the public record.

We have now received a letter dated October 25, 2001 from John D. Gibson, Assistant Staff Director at the FEC Reports Analysis Division. He indicated a response had not been received to the request for information of October 3, 2001, and that by November 14, 2001 the Commission must receive an adequate response.

I called you on October 31, and you responded that the letters should not have been mailed and it would be taken care of that day. We did not need to respond in writing. Just to be certain this matter is resolved, this letter is being sent to fully respond to the original request.

The two referenced reports from the Solutia Citizenship Fund are attached. On the pages which represent Schedule B supporting Line 23, I have highlighted the state for each contribution made. The computer generated format used for this report to support Line 23 was approved by John D. Gibson on September 30, 1997.

This should respond fully to your inquiry. Please contact me at (314) 674-6959 should you need further information or have questions. Thank you.
