Quin Hillyer for Congress was formed in expectation of a Special Election. Although the incumbent has announced his intention to resign, the Special Election has yet to be called. As such, all contributions received have been designated for the next election, which, at this time, is the 2014 Primary. However, once the Special Election has been called, the next election will be the Special Primary. At that time, the Committee will amend its report to reflect these contributions as designated for the Special Primary. Contributions received for the Runoff and General Elections were also designated for the next such elections.
