Reference: FEC Letter, RQ-2 dated May 31, 2000

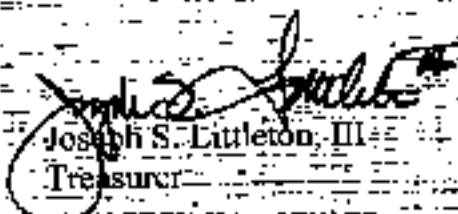

Dear Sirs:

Your letter referenced above indicated the existence of an improper contribution for the 2000 primary election from the PMA PAC to the Texans for Henry Bonilla campaign. I have reviewed our records and concur with your assessment.

The Texans for Henry Bonilla campaign staff has been requested to re-designate the $1000 PMA PAC March 20, 2000, 2000 primary contribution to reflect instead as a contribution to the 2000 general election. Enclosed is a copy of our letter requesting the re-designation. I believe this action should cure the improper designation problem. The PMA PAC June 2000 Monthly Report will reflect a memo entry to document the re-designation.

Thank you for your assistance and consideration.

Sincerely,

Joseph S. Littleton, III

Treasurer

Dear Sirs:

The Federal Election Commission has recently notified PMA PAC of an improper primary contribution to the Texans for Henry Bonilla campaign. This was created by a $1000 PMA PAC contribution dated March 20, 2000, which was designated for the 2000 primary campaign. The Texas primary had already occurred on March 14, 2000, making the contribution improper.

Please accept this request for re-designation of the March 20, 2000 contribution for the 2000 general vice the primary election. PMA PAC is filing a corrected report with the FEC to document the re-designation.

Thank you for your cooperation in correcting this error.

Sincerely,

Joseph S. Littleton, III
Treasurer
