RE: Amended October Monthly Report (09/01/12-09/30/12 Response Due: 04/05/2013 1. The Amended Report disclosed additional receipts immediately upon discovering a software error. The error was not allowing certain transactions to file despite them being properly entered and reported in the software system. The original report was reconciled with an outside CPA prior to filing. The issue was not discovered until a year-end reconciling off the FEC website. The correction required a deletion of each transaction and vendor and reentry, which was done immediately upon discovery. The Committee has converted to a new reporting software, at roughly three times the cost, which should ensure there is not an issue in the future. 2. The Committee has made best efforts to obtain all required information from donors that exceed $200 in a calendar year and has reported any information received from such efforts. Every Committee solicitation has included a clear and conspicuous request for donor information, for information not provided, a follow up has been made that meets the best efforts requirement. Any information that has been received has been disclosed. 3. All communications disclosed on Schedule B for Line 30 (b) meet the conditions of exempt activity. The candidates' names are disclosed in the purpose line. The report has been amended to include the name in the candidate field. 4. Schedule H4, supporting Line 21(a) discloses payments for communications consultant. The payment was not made for any communications that clearly identifies a federal candidate and was properly disclosed on line 21 (a).
