Daniel T. Buckley
Senior Campaign Finance Analyst
Reports Analysis Division

Dear Mr. Buckley,

After further investigation, I have pinned down the discrepancy between my 24 hour notices and my post-general report of $950.40 for an independent expenditure with the World Journal. I had thought that an expenditure made for some other ads covered the region that was instead covered by the $950.40 expenditure. I have filed a belated 24-hour notice to reflect the data more accurately.

I apologize for the very tardy filing of this 24-hour notice.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Sincerely,

Jing-Li Yu
