To the commission:

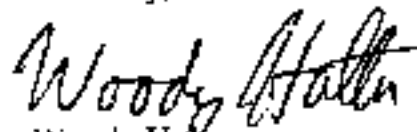

Enclosed please find Clean Up Congress's year-end report for 1995. I know that it is nearly 6 weeks late. I apologize and don't have any excuse other than I just forgot about it in the heat of my present job.

Please note that Clean Up Congress engaged in virtually no activity during the 6-month period covered by this report

Of the 20 or so reports that I have filed since founding Clean Up Congress in 1990, this is the first one that was late. I promise that it will be the last.

In addition to the 1995 year-end report, I enclose a copy of Schedule A listing complete biographical information on the 1994 contributors for whom I had not previously received that information. Now I believe the FE~~C~~ has complete biographical information on every single person who has ever donated an aggregate of $200 or more to Clean Up Congress. We are proud of the contrast to our most formidable opponent, Oliver North, who failed to supply full information on the majority of his large donors.

Sincerely,

Woody Holton
Treasurer

Please note that Clean Up Congress continues to show a paper deficit of $6567.47, whereas we actually have $691.68 in our checking account and no debts or obligations. I am still trying to figure out the discrepancy; my guess (as I mentioned in a previous letter) is that our satellite offices inadvertently failed to report some of the small contributions that came in. I certain that Clean Up Congress reported full information on every contribution that aggregated over $200.
