Reference: July Quarterly Report (05/14/2020-06/30/2020)

To Whom It May Concern:

Our committee is aware of the requirements for dealing with temporarily excessive contributions and has in place a process for remedying them. Each of the instances contained in the request for additional information have been resolved. Where applicable, the actions taken will be reported on the October Quarterly report.

- Carl Berg ? contribution has been redesignated.
- Frank Brownell ? excessive portion has been refunded.
- Jan Duncan ? this contribution was actually received by the conduit before the General election and should have been designated for the Primary and General initially. We have amended our report to reflect this.
- Jo Sloan Martin ? excessive portion has been refunded.
- James Walsh ? excessive portion has been refunded.

We are aware of the rules regarding when a contribution is being made. In fact, that is the reason we have legitimate Primary election contributions deposited after Primary election day. In all cases, the contributions were in the hands of an agent of the campaign or postmarked by election day.

We have written verification that the contribution from an unregistered political committee was made with federally permissible funds.

We will amend our Form 1 to reflect the name change of the affiliated committee.

Thank you for the opportunity to respond.
