RE: #C00140350

Dear Mr. Gibson:

I have reviewed your January 10, 2002 letter (enclosed) in which you ask for the office sought for each contribution given where applicable. As I see it there were 11 contributions made. The first three designate the office in the name box. The next five and the last designate the office in the purpose box. The tenth is for a political action committee. The leaves on the 9th which is for the RNC Presidential trust. Are you trying to tell us to amend that item to indicate that it is for the presidential election? If so, we can do it. If there is some other problem please be more specific so we can respond appropriately.

Very truly yours,

Bruce Chudacoff

Identification Number: C00140350

Reference: Amended October Quarterly Report (7/1/00-9/30/00), received 10/17/00

Dear Mr. Hennessy:

On October 31, 2001, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your November 9, 2001, response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Please amend Schedule B supporting Line 23 by providing the office sought (House, Senate or President), where applicable, for each contribution made. 11 CFR §104.3(b)(3)(ii) and (v)

Due to recent events, the United States Postal Service is experiencing delays in the processing and delivery of mail for the Washington D.C. area. Consequently, the Federal Election Commission is not in receipt of all incoming first-class mail. The Commission recommends that you resubmit your response to this notice and consider using alternate delivery services such as overnight delivery or delivery by courier. If feasible, your response can also be hand-delivered. You can verify the Commission's receipt of any documents submitted by your committee on the FEC website at www.FEC.gov.

An adequate response must be received at the Commission by January 30, 2002. Adequate responses received on or before this date will be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered. Failure to provide an adequate response by this date may result in an audit of the committee. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action.

Electronic filers must file amendments in an electronic format and must submit an amended report in its entirety, rather than just those portions of the report that are being amended. If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Antoinette Kitchen on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 1, then press 2 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or our local number (202) 694-1130.

Sincerely,
