In response to FEC ltr, 8/18/2006:1)Three disbursements to candidate committes were incorrectly catagorized, by clerical error, as primary distributions, when in fact the distributions were for general elections purpose-s. These disbursements have been redesignated in this amendment.2)In response to the request for a detailed de-scription of procedures for requesting 'best efforts' information, the Committee does first, for original soli-citations, includes a clear and conspicuous request for contribution information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. When information is not provided, the committee makes inquiries via e-mail or telephone (documented in writing), within 30 days of the receipt of the contribution. This contact asks for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution, and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. When information is rece-ived, the Committee database is then updated with the information for reporting as required. As suggested by our analyst, we will post 'best efforts' in fields where information has not been provided.3)All expenditures made for 'catering, meals,' Fundraising Catering,' and 'Fundraising Consultant' were in support of the People's House PAC exclusively. None of these expenditures were in support of federal candidates. 4)Expenditures for 'F-undraising Event Printing' were in support of the People's House PAC and did not contain express advocacy, pub-lic communications and voter drive activity referring to federal candidates.5)All expenses relative to adminis-trative activity have been adequately disclosed. No office space is rented, and payroll is comprised of payment-s to an independent contractor. Incurred expenses for administrative purposes are disclosed as reimbursements, as they are incurred.
