RE: Mid-year report (01/01/95 - 06/30/95).

Dear Ms. Wall:

In response to a recent correspondence and our conversation of last week, this is to inform you and the Federal Election Commission that our Mid-year Report 1995, presently late, is being completed and will follow shortly.

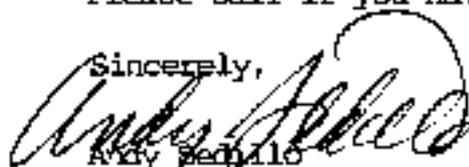

I apologize for the lateness of the mid-year report and will insure that future reports are received on a timely basis.

The Nevada State Democratic Party is currently in transition and is undergoing a change in accounting firms to better facilitate communication and cooperation with the Federal Election Commission.

At present time, our business relationship with Piercy, Taylor, Bowler and Kern, although an experienced and exceptional accounting firm, is not meeting our expectations in the mission and vision of our organization. Reasons for change were:

1. Compliance of requests not met;
2. Communication was not open or productive;
3. Unable to fulfill previous agreements;
4. Unable to define our relationship with firm.

These are a few reasons why it became imperative to change. I understand through our discussion that time commitments are strictly adhered to and that an extension of time may be out of the question. With this understanding, I am doing all that is possible to insure completion and delivery of the report. Thank you for your assistance and cooperation in this matter. Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Andy Sedillo
Treasurer
