Ms. Grant:

This is for the Federal Election Commission to retain for its files in regards to my political campaign for the U.S. House of Representatives, Texas district 10 (C00504795), which I have terminated due to a recent court redistricting decision.

At the time of this letter, my name will no longer appear on any ballot in 2012; and therefore I will not be filing pre- and post- election reports for the planned May 29th Texas statewide primary or the November general election.

I will continue to file quarterly reports while I retain previously completed contributions and future disbursements until such a time as I will terminate my account.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and I'll happily send more information to you.

Best regards,

Daniel S. Grant
