Dear Mr. Buckley,

In response to your letter dated December 12, 2007 requesting additional information regarding the itemized disbursements described as "Administration/Consulting" on the ARMENPAC Amended Mid-Year Report (7/1/07 - 6/30/07), please be advised that we are attempting to upload an amendment to that report, but are currently unable to do so due to glitches in the new FEC File software, which we are trying to resolve with the FEC electronic filing department before the filing deadline. Nevertheless, we wanted to take this opportunity to provide you with the following additional information in response to your inquiry: A.) disbursements to Jason Capizzi have been relabeled as either "wages" or "reimbursable expenses"; Mr. Capizzi is ARMENPAC's Executive Director and examples of his reimbursable expenses include, but are not limited to, travel (plane, train, taxi), meals during travel, hotel expenses, Vonage telephone and fax lines, cell phone, stamps for correspondence on behalf of ARMENPAC (not a candidate), printer paper and toner; B.) disbursements to Michael Beranek have been relabeled as "wages, FEC report data analysis services"; Mr. Beranek assists ARMENPAC with uploading data into the FEC File software; and, C.) disbursements to Shovi Webb Designs have been relabeled as "wages - website maintenance/development"; Shovi Webb Designs built and maintains ARMENPAC's website.

In response to your request regarding limited payments for administrative expenses disclosed on the Amended Mid-Year Report (7/1/07 - 6/30/07), please be advised that ARMENPAC contracts with consultants / independent contractors and does not have any salaried employees (the executive director implements the policies of the PAC's board of directors and coordinates the activities of volunteers to execute ARMENPAC's initiatives, e.g. fundraising, voter registration, grassroots advocacy); ARMENPAC does not maintain a physical office and has no rent or utility payments.

If I can provide any additional information, please let me know.
