To: FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION, WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

10-13-2014

Dear: Federal Election Committee,

While serving this great country and under the premise of the law as a physician/scientist and through my political fortitude, service obligations and in lieu of compensatory responsibilities see this and 104.5(a) quarterly report.

As the treasurer of this Freedom Committee it is also my understanding Form II is the designated form of which to state financial fundraising and all monies allocated to said objective. It is also my understanding until I have acquired more than $49, 999.99 I do not have to report or disclose any financial monies to anyone. I would of course should someone ask to discuss these potential elements of funding be more than happy too.

Freedom Committee Statement of Account October Quarterly Report 2014

In regard to Federal Election Commission 11 CFR Ch. I (1?1?14 Edition) ? 100.94 Uncompensated Internet activity by individuals that is not a contribution-

(a)When an individual or a group of individuals, acting independently or in coordination with any candidate, authorized committee, or political party committee, engages in Internet activities for the purpose of influencing a Federal election, neither of the following is a contribution by that individual or group of individuals: (1) The individual?s uncompensated personal services related to such Internet activities; (2) The individual?s use of equipment or services for uncompensated Internet activities, regardless of who owns the equipment and services.

(b) Internet activities. For the purposes of this section, the term ??Internet activities?? includes, but is not limited to: Sending or forwarding electronic messages; providing a hyperlink or other direct access to another person?s Web site; blogging; creating, maintaining or hosting a Web site; paying a nominal fee for the use of another person?s Web site; and any other form of communication distributed over the Internet.

(c) Equipment and services. For the purposes of this section, the term ??equipment and services?? includes, but is not limited to: Computers, software, Internet domain names, Internet Service Providers (ISP), and any other technology that is used to provide access to or use of the Internet.

(d) Paragraph (a) of this section also applies to any corporation that is wholly owned by one or more individuals, that engages primarily in Internet activities, and that does not derive a substantial portion of its revenues from sources other than income from its Internet activities.

(e) This section does not exempt from the definition of contribution:

- (1) Any payment for a public communication (as defined in 11 CFR 100.26) other than a nominal fee;
  - (2) Any payment for the purchase or rental of an e-mail address list made at the direction of a political committee;
- or

For Subpart D?Definition of Expenditure (2 U.S.C. 431(9))

SOURCE: 67 FR 50585, Aug. 5, 2002, unless otherwise noted ? 100.110 Scope.

(a) The term expenditure includes payments, gifts or other things of value described in this subpart.

(b) For the purpose of this subpart, a payment made by an individual shall not be attributed to any other individual, unless otherwise specified by that other individual. To the extent that a payment made by an individual qualifies as a contribution, the provisions of 11 CFR 110.1(k) shall apply.

? 100.111 Gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money.

(d) For purposes of this section, the term money includes currency of the United States or of any foreign nation, checks, money orders, or any other negotiable instrument payable on demand.

(e)(1) For purposes of this section, the term anything of value includes all in-kind contributions. Unless specifically exempted under 11 CFR part 100, subpart E, the provision of any goods or services without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge for the goods or services is an expenditure. Examples of such goods or services include, but are not limited to: Securities, facilities, equipment, supplies, personnel, advertising services, membership lists, and mailing lists. If goods or services are provided at less than the usual and normal charge, the amount of the expenditure is the difference between the usual and normal charge for the goods or services at the time of the expenditure and the amount charged the candidate or political committee.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (e)(1) of this section, usual and normal charge for goods means the price of those goods in the market from which they ordinarily would have been purchased at the time of the expenditure; and usual and normal charge for services, other than those provided by an unpaid volunteer, means the hourly or piecework charge for the services at a commercially reasonable rate prevailing at the time the services were rendered.

? 100.112 Contracts, promises, and agreements to make expenditures.

A written contract, including a media contract, promise, or agreement to make an expenditure is an expenditure as of the date such contract, promise or obligation is made.

? 100.113 Independent expenditures.

An independent expenditure that meets the requirements of 11 CFR 104.4 or part 109 is an expenditure, and such independent expenditure is to be reported by the person making the expenditure in accordance with 11 CFR 104.4 and part 109.

As per the U.S. Election Assistance Commission -As required by Section 1352, Title 31 of the U.S. Code, As required by Executive Order 12549, Debarment and Suspension?

As the duly authorized representative of the State, I hereby certify that the recipient will comply with the above requirements.

- 2. Typed Name and Title of Authorized Representative: USCMR Diane Chisesi NFS. MD. PhD. CI. CPA. 08/12/2014

In regard to Offsets to operating expenditures, such as returns by vendors of deposits, reimbursements for expenses shared by committees, refunds and rebates are not considered contributions. See 1996-02, 1994-10, 1987-24 and 1986-22. Reference 5, Offsets to Operating Expenditures.

As Treasurer of this Freedom Committee I wanted to briefly mention when the U.S. Department of the Treasury Financial Management Services makes payment for a delinquent outstanding invoice of its own for an accounting project perhaps an original contribution can take place. And one would be more than happy to report during this or any quarterly report.

In regard to ?The value of legal and accounting services? provided without charge in accordance with the guidelines described in the next chapter is not a contribution, 100.86; 114.1(a)(2)(vii). Please reference. 6., Legal and Accounting Services.

Usually in one?s normal source of affairs from an actuary standpoint one receives it?s IRS Tax Refund, (April 15th State and Federal Tax Forms). Under normal circumstance and of fair and equitable treatment in these United States of America an individual gainfully employed by the United States government as an employee, receives compensation. This was and is not the case for the Treasurer of Freedom Committee. There is no monetary amount therefore or hereto of which to report neither by way of contributions nor by way of compensation, reimbursements or vendor payments, as yet received. Therefore there is again no monetary amount of which to report.

To reiterate -while serving this great country and under the premise of the law as physician/scientist and through my continuing service obligations, in lieu of compensatory responsibilities have no current contributions to report but remain in solidarity hopeful towards future objectives.

In an Executive Skills Core Curriculum for example, one is taught to monitor the change process, to solicit feedback, evaluate progress and make adjustments as necessary. Change management establishes a controllable way to effect change in order to achieve the desired outcomes.

The only ?change the Freedom Committee can report is the various methods of obtuse and obscure malicious intent from predacious individuals and groups. They are the predecessors of contempt of this nation and its fiduciary heart. In this maddening sensibility these acts of unkindness strip this country of the very blood of which it has shed to accompany its decisions for change, politically or financially.

When contributions are submitted to this ?Freedom Committee? I will report it to the Federal Election Committee. This concludes the requests of information essential to full public disclosure of your federal election campaign finances and this its October 13th, Quarterly Report, 2014.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
