Dear Stephen,

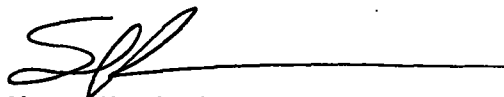

First let me say how much we appreciate your generous support. The Congressman could not have accomplished all he has done without friends like you.

Under provisions of the United States Code, no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $2,300.00.

Thank you for your recent letter directing a "retribution" of $300.00 to your wife. In order for that to be processed, we must receive the form on the following page outlining these instructions, and signed by your wife. As we previously discussed, our records indicate that contributions in your name have been made to Tancredo for President in the amount of $2,600.00, which exceeds the stated limit by $300.00.

You may also request a refund of excess contributions.

Sincerely,

Sharon Korchnak
FEC Coordinator

Dear Ms. Korchnak:

You advised me today that my individual contributions had gone $300.00 over the federal limit. Please reattribute that amount to my wife, who will be making additional contributions to the Tancredo campaign. Here is her information:

Dear Walter,

First let me say how much we appreciate your generous support. The Congressman could not have accomplished all he has done without friends like you.

Unfortunately, it appears you have exceeded the federal limit for individual contributions. Under the Federal Election Campaign Act, the maximum amount we are allowed to accept is $2,300.00 per individual. Your contributions currently total $2350.00.

In order to bring your contribution in line with the limitation, you may request a "retribution" of excess funds to another individual (such as a spouse) whose personal funds are also represented in your account. You may also request a refund of excess contributions.

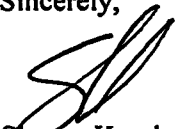

So that our records accurately reflect your wishes, would you (and any other individual involved in the contribution) please complete and sign the enclosed form.

If the statement(s) on the next page are not accurate, please provide a short explanation so the contribution can be attributed properly.

Once again, thank you for your support.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Sharon Korchnak

RE: Reattribution Request - check #9332 dated 9/27/2007 for $2,050

Dear Mrs. Hollman:

In reference to check #9332 in the amount of 2,050, I have completed the following form for your records. I am aware that the legal Federal Election Commission contribution limit for an individual is $2,300 per Election.

[Please CHECK ONE OPTION and sign at the bottom of this page.]

- (1) ☒ Please reattribute the portion of my contribution in excess of $2,300 in the amount of $250 to my husband John. I have had him sign on the line indicated below to confirm this allocation. I hereby verify this check is drawn on a joint account.

Dear Eugenie,

Thank you for your generous contribution to Tancredo for a Secure America. Your support and determination to elect leaders such as Tom Tancredo who will work to protect our great country is truly appreciated.

We have one more request of you. Under Chapter 96 of Title 26, United States Code, Presidential primary candidates are entitled to receive federal funds from the Presidential Primary Matching Payment Account in an amount up to $250.00 from each individual contributor.

To ensure only contributions that qualify are matched, the Federal Election Commission requires additional documentation for contributions submitted for matching that are drawn on one check, but represent contributions from more than one person.

If your contribution of $500.00 drawn on check #9218 of the account identified as John G. Roscoe/ Eugenie B. Roscoe, represents the personal funds of more than one contributor, these funds will qualify for matching only if the statement below is true and verified by the appropriate signature(s). If the statement below is not accurate, please provide a short explanation so the contribution can be attributed properly.

Sincerely,
