

Thank you for your notification regarding cash balance errors in the October 20th monthly report. The mistakes were a result of the report being filed from a separate computer than normally filed from. This was due to unexpected travel. The report now has been amended and, internally, has been added to the normal data file, thus correcting the cash balance issues.

*****