Dear Mr. Ragan:

This letter and enclosed amended report is in response to your letter to us dated August 25. We have made several corrections to our report. We believe this amended report is in full compliance with the FEC. The report has been revised as follows:

- Several contributors had been categorized incorrectly. This caused a discrepancy between line 11(c) and Schedule A supporting line 11(c). After correcting the categorizing mistakes, the discrepancy no longer exists. The net affect on total contributions and cash on hand is zero.
- All transfers from authorized committees are itemized in this amendment and were itemized in our quarterly report. I have printed these transfers separately in this amended report. The reported amount on the detailed summary page was incorrect due to one transfer being counted as a PAC contribution. This error has been corrected. The net affect on total contributions and cash on hand is zero.
- There was a discrepancy between line 11(a) and schedule A supporting line 11(a). This arose from contributors who had been categorized incorrectly. After correcting the categorizing mistakes, the discrepancy no longer exists. The net affect on total contributions and cash on hand is zero.
- No individual or political committee has exceeded any contribution limits, without having been refunded for any contribution exceeding the contribution limits. This has been fully reported. A few inkind contributions on our quarterly report were not designated toward either the primary or general election due to simple data entry errors. This oversight has been taken care of
