Dear «TITLE» «LAST_NAME»,

Thank you for your generous contribution to Campaign for Working Families.

As you may already be aware, federal election law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. I have provided space at the bottom of this letter for you to list your occupation and employer. Please fill out this information and return this letter to us in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope, so that we may be in compliance with federal regulations. We apologize for this inconvenience and thank you again for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Friend,

The battle is raging here in Washington!

The same pro-abortion, pro-gay rights, anti-Bush crowd is saying No! No! No! to every attempt we make to get our country back on the right track.

But I hope you will say YES . . .

. . . YES to family . . . YES to faith . . . and YES to freedom.

That's the statement you'll make by accepting your 2002 Campaign for Working Families Membership Card.

Your 2002 CWF Membership Card is a symbol of our shared values and our commitment to keeping Christians and conservatives involved in political affairs -- to pressing our faith and our values forward in the secular world of politics.

So I hope you'll accept your 2002 CWF Membership Card. And I also hope you'll take a moment right now to return the enclosed 2002 Membership Renewal Statement along with the full amount of your 2002 Annual Gift to Campaign for Working Families.

Our pro-life, pro-family movement must rally in this critical election year. We need every citizen -- including you -- who shares our values to step up to the front lines.

You see, many conservatives in the House and Senate are in trouble. In his most recent report, respected political analyst Charlie Cook calls the battle for control of the House of Representatives dead even.

And in the Senate, there are several conservative, pro-life, pro-family Senators who are in real trouble. Senators Jim Inhofe (OK) and Bob Smith (NH) could easily lose reelection this year which means that Tom Daschle, Hillary Clinton, Ted Kennedy and the rest of their liberal crowd will be running things for the rest of President Bush's first term.

But the coming election campaign -- and frankly your renewing your membership in CWF -- are not simply about winning elections.

They're about the on-going battle for our values.

Next page, please

Page Two

Just think about the critically important issues facing our nation and our elected leaders.

We are beginning an historic debate on cloning. If our opponents win, we face a future of "embryo farms" where human beings are "grown" and body parts harvested!

We are continuing to fight a war on terrorism that will require an unprecedented commitment from the American people. Yet we have a Senate Majority Leader, liberal Tom Daschle, who has undermined President Bush's vision for winning the war.

We face the real opportunity of an opening on the Supreme Court in the next two years. President Bush's nominee could be the deciding vote in overturning Roe v. Wade and reestablishing protection for our unborn children. But we have already seen Christian, conservative pro-life judges voted down by the Ted Kennedys and Hillary Clintons. We must elect more pro-life Senators.

But that's not all. In the next 90 days, I expect the introduction of the Federal Marriage Amendment to the U.S. Constitution to protect the institution of marriage from the radical homosexual activists who would legalize and legitimize same sex marriage in this country. My friend, we will not have God's protective hand on our Nation if we go down this road. We must not permit men to marry men.

These are the reasons you and I are involved in the often ugly business of politics.

To make a difference in these battles.

To stand up for our faith.

To make sure that our values are represented in Washington and in state houses across the nation.

CWF's role in the battle for our culture is simple, but vital. Our job is to find candidates who are unapologetically pro-family and pro-life and support them. If they are not pro-life, they will not receive one penny of help from us -- it doesn't matter what party they are in. If they won't stand with defenseless children, we won't stand with them. You have my word.

And we target candidates who are pro-abortion, anti-family liberals and defeat them.

We use a lot of tools to do this job. Some of them are very expensive like television and radio advertisements.

But they are the only way to win elections.

Over, please

So this is why accepting your 2002 CWF Membership Card and renewing your support of CWF for this year is so important.

Our 2002 budget allows for over $1.5 million of direct support to elected officials who share our common goals. And we have another $1 million budgeted for our education projects and ballot initiatives.

But I cannot raise this budget without your support.

So please take a moment right now and pray about our request. I hope you will then accept your 2002 CWF Membership Card, and return your 2002 Annual Gift in the full amount I've suggested on the enclosed Membership Renewal Statement today.

As always, please do not take money away from your family or your church to support CWF. But if you can stand with us in 2002, now is the time to be counted.

May God bless you and your family. And may He continue to bless our nation.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Bauer

P.S. These 2002 mid-term elections will either solidify the conservative trend started when George W. Bush was elected President or return America to the path toward moral decay and destruction. That may sound harsh but it is the truth.

Only you and I and our other friends working together can prevent this. Please help CWF this year. Please renew your membership and make your annual gift today.

Thank you.

P.P.S. CWF is now able to accept electronic transfers to make your 2002 Membership Contribution easier. For example, if you want to make a commitment of $120 to CWF for the year but can't give the amount all at one time, we can deduct $10 each month from your account. All you have to do is complete the authorization form on the back of the reply and send it back along with a voided check and CWF will deduct your contribution monthly. Please call my office if you have any questions about this program. Our number is 703-671-8800.
