This July 20 Monthly report is being amended to reflect the correct election designation for three direct contributions the Sierra Club Political Committee made to the following campaigns: Steve Israel for Congress Committee, Udall for Colorado, and Pam Byrnes for Congress. We made the request to our finance department to have the checks made out to the campaigns for the primary election, but our reporting staff mistakenly marked them as contributions to the general election. Our records show that the checks were written with the note for the primary election and were all sent to the respective campaigns prior to the primary election date.

This was a direct contribution made to the campaign for the primary election. Our records indicate that the check was designated for the primary, but it was mistakenly reported as a general election contribution by our reporting staff. This is being changed to reflect the original designation of our contribution to the campaign.

This was a direct contribution made to the campaign for the primary election. Our records indicate that the check was designated for the primary, but it was mistakenly reported as a general election contribution by our reporting staff. This is being changed to reflect the original designation of our contribution to the campaign.

This is a full refund of the donation made on May 16, 2014, which was $1,176.00 over the $5,000 contribution limit. Due to our computer system's inability to process partial credit card refunds, our member services representative refunded the entire $6,176.00 and recharged $5,000.00 on the donor's account. This latter contribution is listed on line 11(a) of Schedule A.
