Dear Chris:

Enclosed are copies of correspondence between our PAC (C00150045) and the Bernie Sanders for Senate committee (C00411330) Inadvertently we made the check to Sanders for Congress and have corrected the problem. I will amend the appropriate report to reflect the change. Thank You.

If you have any questions please call me at (203)334-4300 ext.1

Dear Mr. Wallace:

Thank you for your PAC contribution of $5,000.00 (check # 1109 dated 9/13/2005). As we were reviewing our files, it came to our attention that the check was issued to Sanders for Congress, not Sanders for Senate. Congressman Sanders is currently in the Senate race.

In order to keep in compliance with the FEC, we need a letter for our files stating that the funds were indeed appropriated to the Sanders for Senate campaign. The Sanders for Senate FEC ID is C00411330. If you would please fax a copy of your letter before mailing, it would be very much appreciated. Our fax # is (802) 862-2229.

Again, many thanks to you and the members of U.B.C. New England Regional Council of Carpenters C.L.I.C.

Sincerely,

Carol M. Davis

Dear Ms. Davis,

This letter is to serve as notice that our contribution (check #1109 dated 9/13/2005) is to be appropriated to the Sanders for Senate Campaign in the primary phase and not the Sanders for Congress Campaign.

Dave Wallace brought this to my attention today, and I am happy to clarify any confusion arising from the way the check was drawn. Obviously, Representative Sanders is only seeking the Senate.

I apologize for any inconvenience. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to call me at (203) 334-4300.

Sincerely

Glenn Marshall
