At the end of the Q1 2019 report our candidate, David Young, had $197,500 in outstanding personal funds loans owed to him by the committee. Between this filing and the recent Q1 2021 filing, that information wasn't included on the committee's reports. Once this was realized, we discovered that two candidate records existed in our database and the filing committee became linked to the record that did not have the loan activity in it and therefore wasn't pulling on the report. For the Q1 2021 report, this omission was corrected and now the public record is complete.
