Line 9. Designated Campaign Depository

List the name and address of each bank where the committee deposits funds. The committee must have at least one checking account. 103.2

Note that affiliated SSFs may not share the same bank account, though they may establish separate bank accounts at the same financial institution. AOs 1965-33 and 1979-63.

Signing and Dating the Form

The treasurer or designated assistant treasurer must sign and date the form on the bottom (104.14(a)).

The signer's name must also be typed or printed where indicated.

5. Filing the Form

Send the completed Statement of Organization to the appropriate filing office (usually the FEC; see "Where to File" on page 28).

In addition, a copy of the Statement must be filed with the Secretary of State (or other appropriate state elections officer) of the state where the SSF has its headquarters (mailing address). 108.1. The requirement does not apply to SSFs located in the District of Columbia. 108.8. A list of filing offices for all states and territories is available from the FEC.

6. Updating Registration Information

Whenever any of the information disclosed on the Statement of Organization (Form 1) changes, the committee must report the change within 10 days by filing an amended Form 1 or a letter. 102.2(a)(2).

A copy of the amendment must also be filed with the appropriate state officer.

Amending Form 1

When sending an amended Form 1, the committee needs to provide only:

- The full name and address of the SSF;
- The FEC ID number;
- The changed information;
- The date the change took effect; and
- The treasurer's name and signature.

The rest of the form may be left blank.

Reporting Changes by Letter

Instead of filing a new Form 1, a committee may amend its Statement of Organization by sending the FEC a letter containing the information listed above. The treasurer or assistant treasurer must sign the letter.
