Re: FEC ID# C00110858
January 31 Year End Report

To Whom It May Concern:

The enclosed year end report includes a negative entry of $1,000 on line 23, Contributions to Federal Candidates/Committees and Other Political Parties. This negative entry reflects a stop payment on a $1,000 check mailed to Koster for Congress (WA-2) on October 10, 2000, and reported on our 12-Day Pre-Election Report. The check was never received and never cashed by the Koster for Congress Committee.

After receiving our December bank statement, and discovering that the check was still outstanding, I attempted to call the Koster for Congress campaign headquarters to inquire about the check; however, the phone line had been disconnected (Koster lost the race). The only address I had for Koster's Committee was a P.O. Box, and did not consider sending correspondence. I reviewed the Koster Committee's contribution reports on the Commission's web site, and could find no record of their receipt of our contribution.

After deciding that I would put a stop payment on the check, I called the Commission to determine the appropriate procedure to follow to correct the 12-Day Pre-Election Report. I was advised that a negative entry on the year end report, along with this explanation, would be sufficient to bring our Committee's statement up to date. I would be glad to answer any questions about this situation, or provide any additional information you require.

Cordially,

David J. Burch
