Dear Mr. Davis,

Allow me to apologize for the time in responding. As I said on the phone, I am out on business trips frequently.

Attached is your copy of my letter to John Gibson in response to the questions about the above recapped report.

If my explanation in the letter to John Gibson needs further clarification, please let me know. We are a small PAC and are new at this.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Gibson,

Allow me to apologize for the time in responding. As I told Kenneth Davis over the phone, I am continually on business trips and was out of town when your first letter arrived.

As it relates to the filing, and schedule H3, we do not maintain a separate account for federal or state activity because we have not yet allocated or spent monies to support a federal OR state candidate. We honestly do not know what percentage if any the state vs federal candidates will receive as we don't know who we will fund yet.

In addition, it is extremely unlikely that we will raise a total of more than $ 3,000 from inception.

By way of this letter, I would like to apologize once again and hopefully we are in full compliance now with respect to this report.

Sincerely,

Kevin E. Copeland
Treasurer
